

MODERN LANGUAGES & LITERATURES (MLLT)

MLLT 367 Seminar in Modern Languages and Literatures (3 credits)

Prerequisite(s): Departmental approval. Changing topics to include in-depth studies of literary and cultural topics which involve more than one language or national boundary.

MLLT 475 Capstone Course in World Language, Business Culture (3 credits)

Prerequisite(s): Departmental approval. Restriction(s): Required International Experience. This course is for students in the World Language, Business and Culture major, a joint BA between CHSS and the Feliciano School of Business. Students in each of the language tracks will meet together, subsequent to their required International Experience (internship, study abroad, etc.). Students will critically examine each of their international experiences, comparing and contrasting the linguistic and cultural challenges they encountered, thereby developing strategies to strengthen their inter- and intra-cultural competence and agility. Course taught in English. Meets Graduation Writing Requirements for majors in Language, Business and Culture. Mutually Exclusive with SPIN 475.
