PSYCHOLOGY/COMMUNITY (PCOM)

PCOM 245  Introduction to Community Psychology (3 credits)
Prerequisite(s): PSYC 101. This course provides an introduction to community psychology. Guided by the field's current practice competencies, students will explore community psychology's history, theories, research methods, tools for community action, and future directions in the field. Equity, diversity, inclusion, and empowerment will be discussed throughout the course.

PCOM 391  Cooperative Education in Psychology (4-9 credits)
Prerequisite(s): Departmental approval. The cooperative education option integrates academic study with a supervised employment experience outside the formal classroom environment. The co-op term is a semester off-campus, during which a student is supervised by a faculty coordinator and the Office of Cooperative Education, and is responsible for completing the terms of a learning contract.
